

o / mod Ə rnt
friends

*invent the past revise the future
live the now*

o / modərnt

O/Modernt (Swedish for 'Un/Modern') is the concept devised by the violinist Hugo Ticciati. Combining old and new in unexpected ways, O/Modernt celebrates connectivity in and through art, aiming to bring about a heightened awareness of connections that bridge times, cultures and peoples.

- exploring artistic connections between ancient and contemporary culture
- connecting people from all walks of life
- re/connecting people with themselves

A Summer festival at Confidencen Ulriksdal Palace Theatre, Sweden's oldest rococo theatre

A Chamber Orchestra with an exciting touring programme throughout Europe

A Soloists ensemble presenting world-class chamber music programmes

Artistic Collaborations with venues and orchestras in Europe such as Wigmore, Kings Place, Muziekgebouw aan 't IJ, Manchester Camerata, Perugia Chamber Orchestra

Commissioning musical works, with over forty to date by composers from more than ten countries

Musical-Culinary Retreats in Italy

Publishing an annual book related to the theme of the festival

Recording for Signum Classics

The New Generation educational forum for young and talented musicians

The Academy where young artists are mentored by leading thinkers of our day

Outreach projects with children in India and South Africa and Eco-Friendly initiatives

Forging highly original programmes in which the so-called “old” – for which read timeless – comes up freshest in the company of the new.

—The Arts Desk

O/Modernt is made possible by a wonderful family of friends and volunteers, young and old. The Friends scheme provides you with a great way to support the O/Modernt Charity and to join a community of like-minded people, united by a passion for creativity without borders.

As well as receiving exclusive benefits, you will become an integral part of the O/Modernt family and play your role in its exciting future.

How to Join

Becoming a Friend couldn't be easier. Either contact Clare – clare@omodernt.com – or sign-up at omodernt.com/friends to begin enjoying the benefits of your first year of membership right away.

In recognition of your generous support, we would like to say thank you in the following ways.

Bronze and above is applicable as a couples rate.

Friend £50

- Discounted tickets to all concerts
- Personal mention on the webpage
- Regular newsletter with upcoming concerts, news and articles

Bronze £100 All of the above and

- An exclusive Friend's CD
- Personal mention in the festival booklet

Silver £300 All of the above and

- A personally signed CD by an O/Modernt artist
- Invitation to O/Modernt receptions

Gold £500 All of the above and

- A signed copy of an O/Modernt publication of your choice
- Invitations to album launch parties and special events

Platinum £1,000 All of the above and

- Invitations to post-concert dinners with the artists

There is also the opportunity to become a Diamond Patron (from £3,000) or Angel (from £8,000) by

- Funding an educational or outreach project
- Enabling underprivileged groups to attend O/Modernt concerts
- Supporting an O/Modernt artist of your choice
- Commissioning a new work, funding a publication or a CD release

Exclusive benefits include private concerts with O/Modernt artists and complimentary tickets to O/Modernt concerts throughout the year.

HUGO TICCIATI

Artistic Director, O/Modernt

Friends Membership as a Gift

What better way to treat a friend or family member than gifting them O/Modernt membership?

Photo: Marco Borggreve

omodernt.com

O/Modernt Foundation

Registered Charity Number 1177274