Charitable funds will be allocated to meet the direct and indirect expenses of music performance: direct will include the expenses of specific concerts, including artists' fees, travel, venue, rehearsal, printing, all in so far as they are not covered by ticket sales; indirect will include the funding of the charitable infrastructure required to organise the performance of music.

The trustees will delegate to Hugo Ticciati, founder and artistic director of O/Modernt, the authority to allocate charitable funds, always and only within the cash resources of the charity and subject to quarterly reporting to the trustees.
